REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: prior art fails to disclose a communication apparatus operating with an ADSL terminal or station side apparatus/system configured to receive an initializing signal including a first data unit without a cyclic prefix signal and a second data unit with the cyclic prefix signal, the second data unit being received following the first data unit, the cyclic prefix signal being in front of the second data unit and comprising a same data as data of a data unit position at a rear of the second data unit, sample the initializing signal, calculate the difference between the current and previous sample, then square the difference and store a predetermined number of samples which are added and the compared to a threshold value of near zero and if smaller than the threshold value then the number of squared samples is used to determine the position of the cyclic prefix signal. .

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement filed 16 June 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Conclusion

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
